

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Media outlets which are as large and encompassing as Sinclair should not be allowed to manipulate the election process in this way. If they are determined to enter the political arena they must be required to give equal time to the other side of the debate.
Thank you.